DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

> A person shall be entitled to a patent unless -
> (b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.
> (e) the invention was described in a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent, or on an international application by another who has fulfilled the requirements of paragraphs (1), (2), and (4) of section 371(c) of this title before the invention thereof by the applicant for patent.

The changes made to 35 U.S.C. 102(e) by the American Inventors Protection Act of 1999 (AIPA) and the Intellectual Property and High Technology Technical Amendments Act of 2002 do not apply when the reference is a U.S. patent resulting directly or indirectly from an international application filed before November 29, 2000. Therefore, the prior art date of the reference is determined under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) prior to the amendment by the AIPA (pre-AIPA 35 U.S.C. 102(e)).

2. Claims 1-7, 9, 10-13, 15, 16, 18 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Svirchevski et al (US Patent NO 6,093,254).

Svirchevski et al teach a method as claimed. See entire document, especially Figures 4, 5, 6a and the related description.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

> (a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negatived by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. The factual inquiries set forth in Graham v. John Deere Co., 383 U.S. 1, 148 USPQ 459 (1966), that are applied for establishing a background for determining obviousness under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) are summarized as follows:

1. Determining the scope and contents of the prior art.
2. Ascertaining the differences between the prior art and the claims at issue.
3. Resolving the level of ordinary skill in the pertinent art.
4. Considering objective evidence present in the application indicating obviousness or nonobviousness.

6. Claims 8 and 17 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Svirchevski et al in view of Krussel et al (US Patent No 5,723,019).

Svirchevski et al teach the claimed method except for specifically claimed water delivery times.

Krussel et al teach ( see et least column 5, line 63 – column 6, line 58 and column 4, lines 24-34) that such parameters were conventional in wafer cleaning utilizing the same equipment (DSS-200$^{TM}$ of OnTrak Systems, Inc.) as WO 97/13590.

It would have been obvious to an ordinary artisan at the time the invention was made to employ the conventional for the art operation parameters in the method of Svirchevski et al with reasonable expectation of adequate results.

7. Claim 14 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Svirchevski et al in view of Itzkowitz (US Patent NO 5,675,856).

Svirchevski et al teach the claimed method except for the specifically claimed rotation speed.

However, Itzkowitz teaches that such rotation speed was conventional for wafer cleaning in a double brush box.

It would have been obvious to an ordinary artisan at the time the invention was made to rotate wafers in the method of Svirchevski et al with a speed conventional for such processes with reasonable expectation of success.

Response to Arguments

8. Applicant's arguments filed 12/06/05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The applicants amended the claims and argue that in Svirchevski et al water is not applied while the brush is removed from contact with the wafer.

This is not persuasive because in Svirchevski et al the water is also applied to the wafer at rinsing station. The wafer in the rinsing station is not in contact with the brush. It is also noted that Figure 4 of Svirchevski et al shows second brush station and nozzles for delivering fluids. Thereby the applicants argument regarding the only way to deliver water in Sverchevski et al is not persuasive.

The applicants further argue that Svirchevski et al do not disclose that delivery of the water continues until pH is between 4 and 8.5. The applicants further argue that in Svirchevski et al water is applied only until residual chemicals are rinsed from the wafer.

These arguments are not persuasive and contradictive. The examiner would like to note that if the chemicals were removed from the surface of the wafer by water rinsing, the surface would have pH of water, which would meet the claimed limitations.

Conclusion

9. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
